Match feed

For accessing the match feed navigate to the home page of the app accessible at <https://frontend-i3fb.onrender.com> or navigate to the Live matches tab in the right sidebar.

In the top right corner you can choose the date for which you'd like to check the matches. You can also filter the matches shown based on country and/or league, by using filters at the top of the side.

The screenshot shows the 'Match Schedule' section of the FootlyIQ app. At the top, there are dropdown menus for 'Country' (set to 'All Countries') and 'League' (set to 'All Leagues'). A date selector shows 'Today' and '05/10/2025'. Below this, a section for 'Spain' displays matches from 'Primera Division'. The matches listed are:

- Valencia CF vs Getafe CF (3 - 0, Finished)
- RC Celta de Vigo vs Sevilla FC (3 - 2, Finished)
- Girona FC vs Villarreal CF (0 - 1, Finished)
- RCD Mallorca vs Real Valladolid CF (2 - 1, Finished)
- Club Atlético de Madrid vs Real Sociedad de Fútbol (4 - 0, Finished)

At the bottom of the main content area, there is a section for 'Italy'.

The screenshot shows the right sidebar of the FootlyIQ app. It contains the following sections:

- Hot Matches: A message says 'No hot matches yet today. Vote on matches to see trending!'
- Your Activity: Shows '3 Votes Cast' and '3 Favorites', with a 'View Profile' button.
- Quick Actions: Buttons for 'Fantasy Hub' (purple) and 'Analysis Hub' (blue).

On the right side of the home page you can see a few categories shown. Hot matches will show the most viewed and voted matches for the day. Your activity shows you how many matches you voted for (picked an outcome) and how many teams/matches are saved in your favorites. Quick action can take you to the fantasy hub or the analysis hub if you want to use that instead of the navbar.

Match view

By clicking on a match of your own choosing you will be taken to the match overview screen where you can see all the data regarding the match, from result, venue, referees, to lineups and statistics. You can toggle between all of these by selecting the desired option under the result display.

There you will be able to see all the data you want from goal scorers, to detailed match stats.

The screenshots illustrate the FootlyIQ Match View interface, showing the transition between the Overview and Lineups tabs.

Profile

You can login via username and password or use google sign in.

Once you are logged in you can use your profile to:

- Add your Premier league fantasy team id
- Get an overview of your favorites

The screenshot shows the FootlyIQ mobile application's profile interface. At the top, it displays a welcome message: "Welcome, gal.dvorsak2002@gmail.com". Below this, the "Fantasy Premier League" section shows a "Fantasy Team ID" of "6831620" with a green "Update Fantasy Team ID" button. Under "Real-time Notifications", there are two active alerts: "Live Match Updates" (notified when favorite matches have score changes) and "Club Match Alerts" (notified when favorite clubs' matches start). Both are marked as "Active". The "Monitoring Status" section indicates tracking 1 favorite match and 2 favorite clubs. There are "Start Monitoring" and "Stop Monitoring" buttons. The "Your Favorites" section lists "Favorite Clubs" with FC Internazionale Milano and Botafogo FR selected. The "Favorite Matches" section shows a recent match between Paris Saint-Germain FC and FC Internazionale Milano, which ended at 31.05.2025 at 21:00 with a score of 5-0 and is marked as "FINISHED". A green "Monitoring Favorites" button is visible at the bottom left.

Favorites

Want to give certain matches and teams extra attention. Simply add them to favorites. For matches you can do that by pressing the little star icon on the right side of the match window. For teams navigate to the team page and click on the little star next to the team name.

Favorites will be shown in your profile. You will receive notifications (game start, goal...) in the app for your favorite teams or matches by default. If you don't want that simply click on »stop monitoring« in your profile. We will not disturb you 😊.

This screenshot shows the same FootlyIQ mobile application profile interface as the previous one, but with a different set of favorite items. It features the same "Real-time Notifications" section with active alerts for live match updates and club match alerts. The "Monitoring Status" shows tracking 1 favorite match and 2 favorite clubs. The "Your Favorites" section lists "Favorite Clubs" with FC Internazionale Milano and Botafogo FR selected. The "Favorite Matches" section shows a recent match between Paris Saint-Germain FC and FC Internazionale Milano, which ended at 31.05.2025 at 21:00 with a score of 5-0 and is marked as "FINISHED". The overall layout is identical to the first screenshot, with dark-themed cards and green highlights for active notifications and monitoring status.

Searching for teams and players

Sometimes accessing teams or players through match view can be tedious. Don't worry, we offer search option. Just navigate to the »Teams« or »Players« page with the navbar. In there just type in your desired team/player and check them out.

You can also filter and sort the results by clicking the Filters button.

Analysis hub

Analysis hub is our intelligent solution for more detailed look into team stats and tactics. It is powered on historical premier league data and our machine learning. Therefore it is only accessible to premier league teams.

Users can look into three important parts of play:

- Passing with pass clustering, where users can see most common pass clusters, most common entries in final 3rd, or most common passes based on their desired filters. After every new display, the legend, explaining pass clusters is updated.
- Goals with xG which will give you a look into each team most dangerous zones when it comes to scoring
- Threats and attacking tactics with xT, which can give an insight into the way teams are moving passes, creating chances, and their shooting zones, also with shot probability.

Fantasy

In order to access the fantasy section, first you have to be logged in in our application and have entered the Fantasy Premier League ID for your team in the profile section (shown below), which ID you can find as explained below:

1) Open your points page

2) Find your FPL id in the URL after /entry/

The diagram shows a screenshot of the Fantasy Premier League Points page. A large arrow points from the text "1) Open your points page" to the "Points" tab in the navigation bar. Another arrow points from the text "2) Find your FPL id in the URL after /entry/" to the URL in the browser's address bar, which is highlighted with a red box.

Update Fantasy Team ID

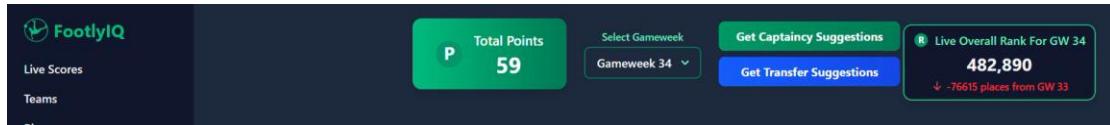

Then you can access the fantasy section in which by default would be shown your team from the latest finished gameweek (now it is the gameweek 38 because the season 2024/2025 has ended). In the upper right corner is the section for overall live rank based on the selected gameweek for your team.

You can click on any player to see his detailed stats and a popup will appear (as shown below):

You can also view your team for previous gameweeks just by selecting the gameweek from the gameweek dropdown menu which is located in the top-center part of the page. If the selected gameweek is not 38 then two buttons will appear at the top of the page, one for captain suggestions and another one for transfer suggestions for the upcoming gameweek:

When you click on the captain suggestion, it analyzes your players in the team and gives the top 6 candidates for captaincy in the following gameweek based on stats, form, fixture difficulty and predicted points:

| Rank | Player Name | Position | Score | Avg pts | Form | Next Fixture | Predicted Points |
|------|----------------|------------|-------|---------|------|-------------------------|------------------|
| 1 | Jarrod Bowen | Midfielder | 34.60 | 7.00 | 9.7 | Spurs (Home, FDR: 2) | 7.53 |
| 2 | Bryan Mbeumo | Midfielder | 31.00 | 6.25 | 6.3 | Man Utd (Home, FDR: 2) | 6.01 |
| 3 | Jacob Murphy | Midfielder | 30.96 | 8.60 | 3.0 | Brighton (Away, FDR: 3) | 6.23 |
| 4 | Alexander Isak | Forward | 14.49 | 4.20 | 1.3 | Brighton (Away, FDR: 3) | 2.99 |
| 5 | Dan Burn | Defender | 14.40 | 4.80 | 4.7 | Brighton (Away, FDR: 3) | 4.39 |
| 6 | Joško Gvardiol | Defender | 13.75 | 4.25 | 5.3 | Wolves (Home, FDR: 3) | 4.22 |

When you click the transfer suggestions button, it analyzes your players from your team and gives top 3 possible transfer moves that you can make for the upcoming week based on your not-in-form players to transfer out and best players to transfer in (same position players and also that you can afford within your budget):
